

Commissioners - Boundary Review Board

00100.242.

Mission Statement

Guide and control the creation and growth of municipalities so that problems may be avoided pursuant to RCW 36.93.

Function

The Boundary Review Board is a five person volunteer board, appointed by the Clallam County Commissioners, that serve a four year term. The Board reviews proposals for boundary changes by cities, fire districts, and water/sewer districts within the county, including annexations, new city incorporations, and district mergers.

Goals

1. Advertise for volunteer board members, in a timely and efficient manner, to serve a four year term.
2. Process and approve all annexation/merger requests within the required time limits set by the state.
